Located just 12 Kms from Narromine along the old Warren road is a very comfortable four bedroom home. On 1.49 Acres, fully fenced and set back off the main road, with its stock and domestic bore equipped with a tank and pressure pump. You will have a lawn and garden up and running in no time and the vegetable garden and established fruit trees just need some love and attention to flourish.

The home offers a galley style kitchen and dining room opening onto the lounge with its wood burning heater and a ducted evaporative air conditioner providing year round comfort. Four bedrooms all with built in robes and a three-way bathroom is perfect for the family. Out in the yard are two good sized open front sheds a shipping container for lockable storage a chicken run and still plenty of room for the ponies and dogs.

This property is situated on the old Timbreebongie Church site.
