Presenting a neat 3 bedroom Fibro/brick clad house set on a spacious 2437 square metre block in a highly sort after area. This house comes fully furnished and has recently had 3 new reverse cycle air-conditioners installed ensuring the house is kept at a comfortable temperature all year round.

All three large bedrooms are carpeted and have built-in wardrobes, the lounge room is located at the front of the house and offers plenty of space for a large family. The kitchen is centrally located with a four burner stove, an original Rayburn Fuel stove and plenty of storage. This room has a spacious dining area attached which is currently being used as a second lounge room.

Just off the kitchen you will find the bathroom at the rear of the house, with a shower and toilet. The house also has an office space area and a front entrance area offering plenty of space throughout.

The yard is massive in size, offering 2437 square metres, there is a carport located close to the house, a little open shed at the back of the yard, and just off the rear of the house there is another larger shed, which contains the laundry, and 2 other storage spaces.

This house is located in a very good location and offers a lot of potential to move in and complete some work to make it your own or buy as an investment. This house would rent for around $200-$220 a week.
