36 Mitchell Street is a property that could lend itself to many uses. Situated in the main shopping precinct close to shops, club and hotel and features two good sized offices. One with shelving and cupboards, a large room previously used for a meeting room, a kitchenette with shelving, separate men's and ladies toilets as well as a shower room. The fully fenced yard with rear lane access also has a great sized lockable above ground shed. Move straight in and set up shop or with some work this property could also be a two-bedroom unit with large lounge room and eat in kitchen. (subject to Council approval).
