Agent comments:

A quaint & cosy country cottage that has been tastefully renovated. The cottage features include two bedrooms, new carpet in bedrooms & lounge/family room, bathroom with shower, vanity and a beautiful large spa bath, open plan kitchen/dining opening through to the family- lounge area that wraps around to the front area for office space leading out onto the beautiful timber decking undercover front veranda to enjoy the morning sun over coffee.

The lounge/family room creates a welcoming feel in the cooler months with a traditional open fireplace to relax over drinks. Along with the reverse cycle air conditioner to ensure all year comfort.

The property represents a lovely country feel that captures you, the minute you pull up, it is neat & well presented with a warm & inviting vibe, set on a spacious half acre beautiful block surrounded by trees & established lawns, with plenty of room a pony and for open air entertaining flowing off from the back veranda undercover timber decking. Access to Duncanâ€™s Creek to paddle in or relax with a picnic on the creek banks with the tranquillity of the flowing waters.

Woolomin village is within easy distance of the thriving centre of Tamworth. 5 minutes to the popular Chaffey Dam for all your summer recreational boating, fishing and fun outings for the whole family to enjoy. The historical village of Nundle captures visitors from a field for the yearly festivals and other features of Nundle. The Woolomin village also caters for all your necessary needs with a lovely primary school & the local shop for take away, food & fuel supplies.

Would be well suited to many buyers, including as an holiday cottage ,an investor for B & B purposes, a family starting out or a couple.
