

Escape the rental market

Price : SOLD

2 1 2

This two-bedroom home is just waiting for the right person who wants to escape the rental cycle and become a home-owner. A modern kitchen with polished floor boards, electric stove and ample cupboard space opens into the open plan dining and living area. This area also features polished floor boards for easy care. The bedrooms are carpeted and have been recently painted and there is an additional sun room at the rear of the house. The bathroom has a shower and basin with a separate toilet and laundry. The house is well fenced and has a large double carport adjoining the house with a garden shed in the rear of the yard. Established lawns and small front porch complete this property.
