Located just across the road from the sports complex and public school is this wonderful older style brick house with sunken lounge room. Offering two bedrooms and a large sleep out, there is plenty of room for all the family. This home has had new flooring throughout and all the walls washed to freshen the place up. The back veranda on the eastern side of the home make it a wonderful area for entertaining. A lockable garage, carport and enclosed back yard with back lane access make this property a great family home.
