Here is a fantastic opportunity to do a cosmetic renovation on a great four-bedroom family home in a superb location. Offering spacious living areas a generous sized kitchen/dine, formal dining room and large loungeroom with four bedrooms and an enclosed back yard with a vegetable garden, this home provides lots of opportunities. At the front of the house is a private courtyard perfect for morning coffee or afternoon drinks and nibbles. The owner has been working on the yards and gardens and the love is beginning to show with flowers and lawn, lush weed free and blooming. Car accommodation is provided by a double drive through carport. The home is located across the road from the tennis and netball courts, football oval and children's park this is a true family home with the current owner ready to move on.
