

A great opportunity to create your own home

Price : SOLD

3 1 3

This home offers a blend of new and Federation style throughout, with the front portion consisting of concrete walls on the inside and outside, making a feature of the home.

Comprising of three generous bedrooms, the front bedroom features French doors leading out onto the front verandah.

A spacious hallway with polished timber floorboards leading out to the lounge room, flowing onto an open plan dining, family and kitchen areas, with a split system in the family room.

A new kitchen is also a feature containing white cupboards throughout, electric oven and hotplates, double bowl sink, dishwasher, splash backs, pantry cupboard, tiled flooring and a four-door storage cupboard.

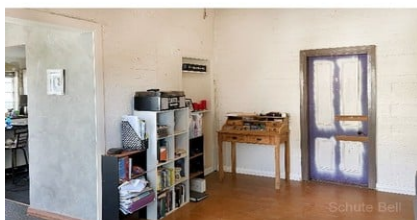

The home has verandahs on two sides, a back covered entertainment area with cement flooring which runs along the whole of the back of the home, 3KW of solar panels.

Two bay garage with cement flooring and roller doors as well as a carport and the added benefit of rear lane access complete this property.

If you are looking to renovate and make a comfortable home for your family, an inspection is essential.
