Do not be misled by the modest appearance of this home. Behind the front door, a surprise awaits you.

This three bedroom fibro home is situated in a very sought after area of town. With polished floorboards throughout, and boasting a brand new kitchen with electric stove, hot plates, and double sink, this home has undergone some tasteful renovations.

The home has separate dining and living rooms with a cosy slow combustion fire-place in the dining area; and the large living room has lovely glass sliding doors, adding a feeling of space to the home.

The main bedroom features built-ins robes, a large floor rug, ducted evaporative and reverse cycle air conditioning. The two other bedrooms are also air conditioned and of a reasonable size.

The home also has a neat bathroom, comprising bathtub, separate shower, toilet, and vanity all set off with a tiled floor.

The very private backyard is fenced, features well established lawns, gardens and trees, and rear lane access. There is a covered back barbecue area and the potential to remodel a currently unused granny flat.

This neat, stylish and comfortable home will not last long, so you had better be quick.
