Looking for something just that little bit different or do you like all things retro? Or maybe just a nice property to put your own inspirations and ideas into, then I have the perfect house for you. Located just walking distance to the local supermarket and schools, 77 Mitchell Street is a unique property all round. Featuring curved walls, high ceilings with original kitchen and bathroom (that needs a bit of work). The home has four bedrooms two with built ins, a separate dining room and a lovely sized lounge with old fireplace and mantel. An entrance hall runs from front to back features a good-sized linen press and opens out onto the sunny back verandah. The property is fully fenced has back lane access and a single lock up garage.

Inspection by appointment only.
