69 Dandaloo Street Narromine provides a unique opportunity to purchase a great property in the main Street of Narromine. The property offers a large retail space, with large display windows at the front of the property and glass sliding entry doors. The front area of the shop offers near new paint work, flooring, a split system air condition and change rooms. There is also a generous office/storage area attached to the building along with a storage shed, and toilets at the rear of the building. If you are looking to establish a new business or looking to relocate your current business than you must certainly inspect 69 Dandaloo Street Narromine.
